

Knebworth Players April production is FLYING FEATHERS by DEREK BENFIELD

When Chief Constable Henry Potterton and his sister Sarah visit Dingle Farm, the home of their recently deceased brother, they are greeted (much to their surprise) by a 'housekeeper' they've never met and four young ladies who's scanty clothing is hardly suitable for a farm!

The housekeeper, Mrs Winthrop, is equally surprised to see the Chief Constable and much comic confusion arises until she finally understands, to her dismay, who he is and why he's arrived on the doorstep.

The plot thickens when a vicar arrives (but is he who he says he is?) closely followed by a solicitor on a horse! And what has happened to the window cleaner?

Flying Feathers is a beautifully written farce with twists and turns throughout the script. Just as you think you've worked out what's going on and who everyone is, another plot twist appears!

This play has been popular wherever it has been performed, so come along in April and find out why!
